Enroll your Teen in a Safe Sitter class Saturday, April 7th

Let Safe Sitter give you peace of mind. Your teen will learn more than just babysitting basics. They'll learn the life and safety skills any teen should have before babysitting or staying home alone and the sensible decision-making skills you, as a parent, need for them to have. Safe Sitter builds confidence.

It's medically-accurate. It's current and teaches today's teen about cell phone and internet safety. Most of all, it stays with teens for life!

The class will be held, Sat. April 7th from 9am to 4pm in the Coffee House. Lunch will be provided. The Class is for boys and girls ages 11-14. It is sponsored by Wake Med Hospital and they will charge $60 per student.
