Psalm 91 vs. 1-12

He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty.
 I will say of the Lord, "He is my refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust."
 Surely he will save you from the fowler's snare and from the deadly pestilence.
 He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, nor the pestilence that stalks in the darkness, nor the plaque that destroys at midday.
 A thousand may fall at your side, ten thousand at your right hand, but it will not come near you. You will only observe with your eyes and see the punishment of the wicked. If you make the Most High your dwelling, even the Lord, who is my refuge, then no harm will befall you, no disaster will come near your tent.
 For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways; they will lift you up in their hands, so that you will not strike your foot against a stone.
